Speaking Engagements:

July 15, 2009 - Speaker, Business Entity Selection and Formation, Houston Downtown Alliance, Entrepreneurial Workshop.

Bob Rapfogel

Bob Rapfogel is a corporate and transactional attorney whose practice focuses on mergers and acquisitions, securities offerings, and general corporate and securities law matters, including the following:

- Advising clients on all aspects of asset and stock acquisitions and divestitures, mergers and recapitalization transactions.
- Advising clients in connection with fund raising activities and private placement securities offerings.
- Advising publicly held clients on all aspects of disclosure requirements under federal securities law and stock exchange listing rules, including preparation and filing of periodic reports, registration statements, proxy statements, insider beneficial ownership reports, and other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
- Advising clients on matters related to state governmental economic development programs and open government law.
- Advising clients on other general business law matters, including entity formation, organizational and corporate governance issues.

Currently, Bob is the Associate General Counsel for Corporate and Securities at Key Energy Services, Inc. (NYSE: KEG), an international onshore oilfield services company headquartered in Houston, Texas. Prior to joining Key, Bob was an associate in the corporate securities section of Mayer Brown LLP, a global law firm with approximately 1,800 lawyers in the Americas, Asia and Europe. Bob also served in state government for two years as an Assistant Attorney General at the Texas Attorney General's Office. While working for the state, he provided counsel to the Office of the Governor on corporate and securities law matters in connection with the creation and administration of the Texas Emerging Technology Fund, and also worked on matters related to the Texas Public Information Act. Bob is a native of Fort Worth, Texas, where he began his legal practice in the corporate securities section of the lawfirm Canley Hanger LLP. Prior to law school, he worked as a financial analyst for Intel Corporation in Santa Clara, California, where he provided analytic and budgetary financial support for Intel's microprocessor research and software development divisions worldwide. Bob received his law degree in 2003 from the University of Southern California Law School, where he served as Articles Editor for the Southern California Law Review and was an active member and grant recipient of USC's Public Interest Law Foundation. He received a BBA in Finance and a BA in Japanese Language Studies from the University of Texas at Austin in 1997.
